

2-Day Course ±Quantitative Methods for Psychology/Linguistics/Educational Studies using STATA

Date: TBC

Venue: TBC

1. Course Overview

This is a 2 day course provides an introduction to statistics, further advanced methods of analysis and their application in the quantitative social sciences with a focus on psychology, linguistics and educational studies. Especially for linguistics and educational studies, these methods have not been used until only recently. This course will provide participants with basic statistical methods with hands-on exercises, databases, in-class discussion, data and